

Supply List for Carla O'Connor Workshops

Please read carefully. I try to keep this list simple and inexpensive - substitutes are fine. The items I think are important to the workshop are in bold type below. This is a workshop using both transparent watercolor and semi-opaque watercolor (gouache).

Supply List – Composition with Figure Workshop

Painting supplies:

Your Preferred Painting Materials: paint, brushes, palette, natural sponge, etc.

In Addition----

Paper: Three full sheets of 140 pound HOT PRESS watercolor paper. I suggest D'Arches Hot Press 140 pound or Fabriano Artístico 140 pound Hot Press .

Bring extra sheets of your preferred paper.

Black and white watercolor gouache, large tubes. (Careful! Not acrylic gouache!)

One small natural sponge

If you wish - a separate palette for opaques -- a plastic plate will do.

Drawing supplies:

Large sheets of newsprint.

Pens, pencils, Conté sticks (both black and white), charcoal, india ink or Sumi ink, two wide marker pens (one red and one black) -- a variety of drawing media - materials you already have at home.

Scissors & glue stick

One small jar matt acrylic medium

White studio mats (old mats you have handy in the studio) - one each quarter and half sheet size

Standard flat tables are provided so you might want to bring an easel, table easel or other device to prop your watercolor board.

VERY IMPORTANT :

Please bring one painting that represents your current style. AND--
One old, failed painting!!!

Bring photos or sketches of your favorite subject matter (figure or otherwise) or some other reference material to work from.
